The Indonesian Journal of Christian Education and Theology (IJCET), published by Formosa Publisher, is an international, peer-reviewed journal dedicated to advancing scholarly discourse in Christian education and theology. It publishes quarterly in February, May, August, and November. IJCET covers topics ranging from theological studies and empirical research to innovative approaches in Christian education, contributing to a deeper understanding of the field and its application to contemporary issues.

This journal serves as a platform for the dissemination of rigorous academic research and thought-provoking insights in Christian education and theology. With a commitment to scholarly excellence, IJCET aims to explore the intersections of faith, education, and culture, fostering meaningful dialogue among academics, educators, and theologians worldwide. We invite readers and contributors to join us in advancing this vital field through innovative ideas and impactful research.

Happy Reading
